GONZALES – Ascension Parish President Kenny Matassa announced parish drainage, flood zone and emergency preparedness officials will hold a public meeting at the Ascension Parish Library in Gonzales on Wednesday, March 16 at 6 p.m. The library is located at 708 S. Irma Blvd.

“Our staff will be on hand to answer questions like what residents need to do before and after a storm to protect their family and property,” President Matassa said. “Staff members will offer useful tips on preparing for a flood, as well as, information on flood insurance.”

Featured speakers include Bill Roux, director of the East Ascension Drainage Department; Lance Brock, parish zoning official; Meredith Conger, planning and intelligence officer with the parish’s Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness; and Marcia Shivers, parish floodplain coordinator.
