FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 3, 2014

GONZALES – Ascension Parish President Tommy Martinez announced Monday a series of community input meetings are scheduled for March to address future plans for Ascension Parish recreation programs.

The meetings, sponsored by the Parish of Ascension Recreation and Culture Department, will give parish residents a chance to give input while also hearing presentations about possible future plans for upgrading current parish parks, and the creation of new ones including: a proposed Donaldsonville Fairground Sports Park, and a proposed Multi-use Sportsplex. They will also be discussing ideas for kayaking and nature trails.

“We are looking forward to hearing from our citizens to help us develop a recreation improvements plan we are calling “Envision Our Parks,” said Parish Councilman and Recreation Committee Chairman Travis Turner. “Their input is vital to ensuring we are meeting the recreational needs of our community.”

All meetings will be from 6 p.m. till 8 p.m. and residents may register for a sports equipment drawing.
