FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 14, 2014

DONALDSONVILLE – Ascension Parish President Tommy Martinez proclaimed Feb. 6, 2014 as Prince Davis Day in Ascension Parish in honor of the former Donaldsonville councilman and community volunteer.

President Martinez read the proclamation aloud during the Ascension Parish Council meeting on Feb. 6.

“I’ve been knowing Prince a long time,” President Martinez said. “He’s a great guy and a very honest guy. He’s hard working. He worked for parish government for a while and did a great job here.”

Davis served in the armed forces and was stationed in Germany during the Berlin build up before returning to Louisiana in 1963 where he worked in the chemical industry for 36 years.

Davis began his public service career as a Donaldsonville city councilman and served from 1985 till 1989 before working in parish government as the Westside coordinator.

Davis has volunteered with the Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation, the African-American Museum in Donaldsonville and the Ascension Council on Aging.

“Prince, I want to congratulate you and thank you for all the service in the years that we joined together with the Council on Aging,” Councilman Dempsey Lambert said. “You’ve done a lot for the seniors in the parish. We really appreciate you.”
