Sand and Bags Available to Parish Residents This Weekend

Contact: Lester Kenyon (225) 621-5753
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: May 11, 2012

GONZALES – Parish officials announced Friday, May 11 that sand and bags will be available at several fire station locations this weekend because of possible heavy rains predicted to pass through the area, according to the National Weather Service.

Department of Public Works Director Ronnie Fairchild said sand and bags will be available at five fire stations.

Those stations include the 7th District Fire Station at 13398 Roddy Road in Gonzales, the new 7th District Fire Station at 13337 N. Hwy. 44 in Gonzales, the Prairieville Fire Station at 37237 Goodwood St. in Prairieville, the Galvez-Lake Fire Station at 16288 Joe Sevario Road in Prairieville and the St. Amant Volunteer Fire Department Station at 44465 Stringer Bridge Rd. in St. Amant.

Public Works officials said residents should bring their own shovels to the sand/bags locations.
