Geismar Community Center Renamed in Honor of Richard Brown

At the October 20 Ascension Parish Council meeting, Parish President Kenny Matassa asked, and the Council unanimously agreed, to rename the Geismar Community Center in honor of the late Richard Brown.

“Richard Brown was a tireless worker for Ascension Parish,” Matassa said, “through his work in the schools, recreation, Parish government, and his community involvement. It is only right that we honor his memory this way.”

Mr. Brown, who passed away earlier in the month, was a retired coach, teacher, administrator, and school board member, who also worked for Ascension Parish government.

A formal dedication ceremony will be held at the center at a later date.
