Ascension Parish Council Considers Permit Fee Waiver for Flood Reconstruction

Ascension Parish President Kenny Matassa announced today that the Parish Council will consider a resolution waiving all permit fees for repairs and reconstruction for flood-affected homeowners at its November 17 meeting. The passage of the resolution will make permanent the permit fee waiver instituted by President Matassa by executive order after the flood.

“The people of Ascension Parish are ready to get back home,” said Matassa. “We streamlined the process and waived the fees to help make that happen.”

Property owners who have already paid for permits may apply for refunds from the Parish’s Building Department in the Governmental Complex at 615 Worthey Street in Gonzales. Residents should bring the permit with them, along with any receipts, when they apply for a refund.

More information can be obtained by calling the Ascension Parish Building Department at 225-450-1002.
